The Anchor

To our seniors,

As I watch the seniors carry themselves throughout the school, I am constantly reminded how much you have accomplished, not only this year, but over the course of your high school career. I see a group of students who have modeled qualities that create a positive atmosphere for any school, characterized by a tone of respect for each other, respect for academic achievement, and most importantly, self-respect. In your willingness to give back to others you have found the maturity to be grateful, care deeply, and persevere. While events close to home have shaken our world, your steadfast resolve has carried us all forward.

Continue to commit yourselves to fulfill your wants and dreams. Look back on this yearbook as a reminder of a formative time in your life. As you reflect in later years you will cherish the past moments of hard work, exploration, and just plain fun that defined your high school experience.

The MERHS community has served to help you realize and shape the individual you have become as we have refused to let you settle on anything less than your best efforts. The faculty and staff strongly believe that each one of you has special qualities that will support your continued success.

Best of luck,
Robert Shaps
Principal

Dedicated to Mrs. Kathy Hunt

Who is the one person at MERHS who always has a smile? Who always has a solution no matter what is troubling you?

Between helping to manage the library, patrolling the cafeteria for problematic trash delinquents, and being the emergency therapist, secretary, and maintenance person, one wonders how Mrs. Hunt ever gets the chance to leave at night.

Regardless of the long hours, Mrs. Hunt has always been there for anyone who needs her. The class of 2002 feels that Mrs. Hunt embodies the true spirit of MERHS. The class of 2002 honors Mrs. Hunt's humor, compassion, and commitment to the student body.

10th Year Reunion

Jessie Adler was out in her car listening to Garth Brooks because no one else wanted to.
Melinda Amaral wouldn't think of going to a Manchester-Essex reunion.
Steve Ambrose couldn't make it because he had to have the car back by six.
Jason Amero's Camaro broke down on the way there.
Ali Becker was at Lindsay's house eating all her food.
Christina Bitting was traveling with the carnival.
Taylor Bleit was throwing an "alternative" party in his garage.
Jeff Booker was getting his stomach pumped after eating too much Miracle Grow with Mo H.
Tina Borysthen-Tkacz was still writing English notes for Aves's class.
Vanessa Boynton ran out of shades of black to wear.
Jon Brideau was following May Grose to Canada.
Morrigan Browne was shopping with her eighth grade science teacher.
Christina Cappello was stalking Prince Will while riding on a pterodactyl.
Jess Dasilva wouldn't go if Melinda wasn't going.
Justin Daigle was studying the fine art of mudslinging.
Meghan DeSimone was shopping at Bebe for another pair of $90 pants.
Airos Dizon was playing professional ice hockey.
Meredith Dozier was still grounded for her awesome party.
James Essensa couldn't find a girl in the class he hadn't already hit on.
Matt Everett was playing bocce with Mr. Averill.
Ellen Flatley was watching her collection of Disney movies because she couldn't find anything purple to wear.
Ariel Frank was at her youth group reunion instead.
Ronny Gallant was digging clams.
Alex Gambino was still driving to Essex.
Liz Gambino couldn't come because Alex took the car.
Greg Granz got his license taken away ... again.
Jessie Guertner was picking up Alex Jr. from swimming lessons.
Ben Halpern-Meeke was being broadcast from Washington on Hardball and couldn't stop talking long enough to realize that he had missed the reunion.
Ryan Hannah got ready to go and then decided to spin the beach instead.
Amanda Hardy was on a camping trip with her daughter's girl scout troop.
Laura Harnden couldn't find anything pink to wear.
Tanya Harrell didn't want to go because she thought she might cry when she saw her friends.
Denise Harris was at a karaoke bar in Chicago.
Mo Henderson got lost on Rte. 133 while stalking the Ford and couldn't find her way back.
Haley Hughes was touring the world's fine art museums with her newest works.
Alex Jackson never came back from that youth hostel in Germany.
Mike Jellerson was trying to find Nancy J. in Florida.
Monique Jordan "sprained" her ankle when she saw a cute EMT walking down the street.
Andrew Knox wouldn't come if he couldn't find his biker gloves.
Mia Landsvik couldn't decide which Nate to bring.

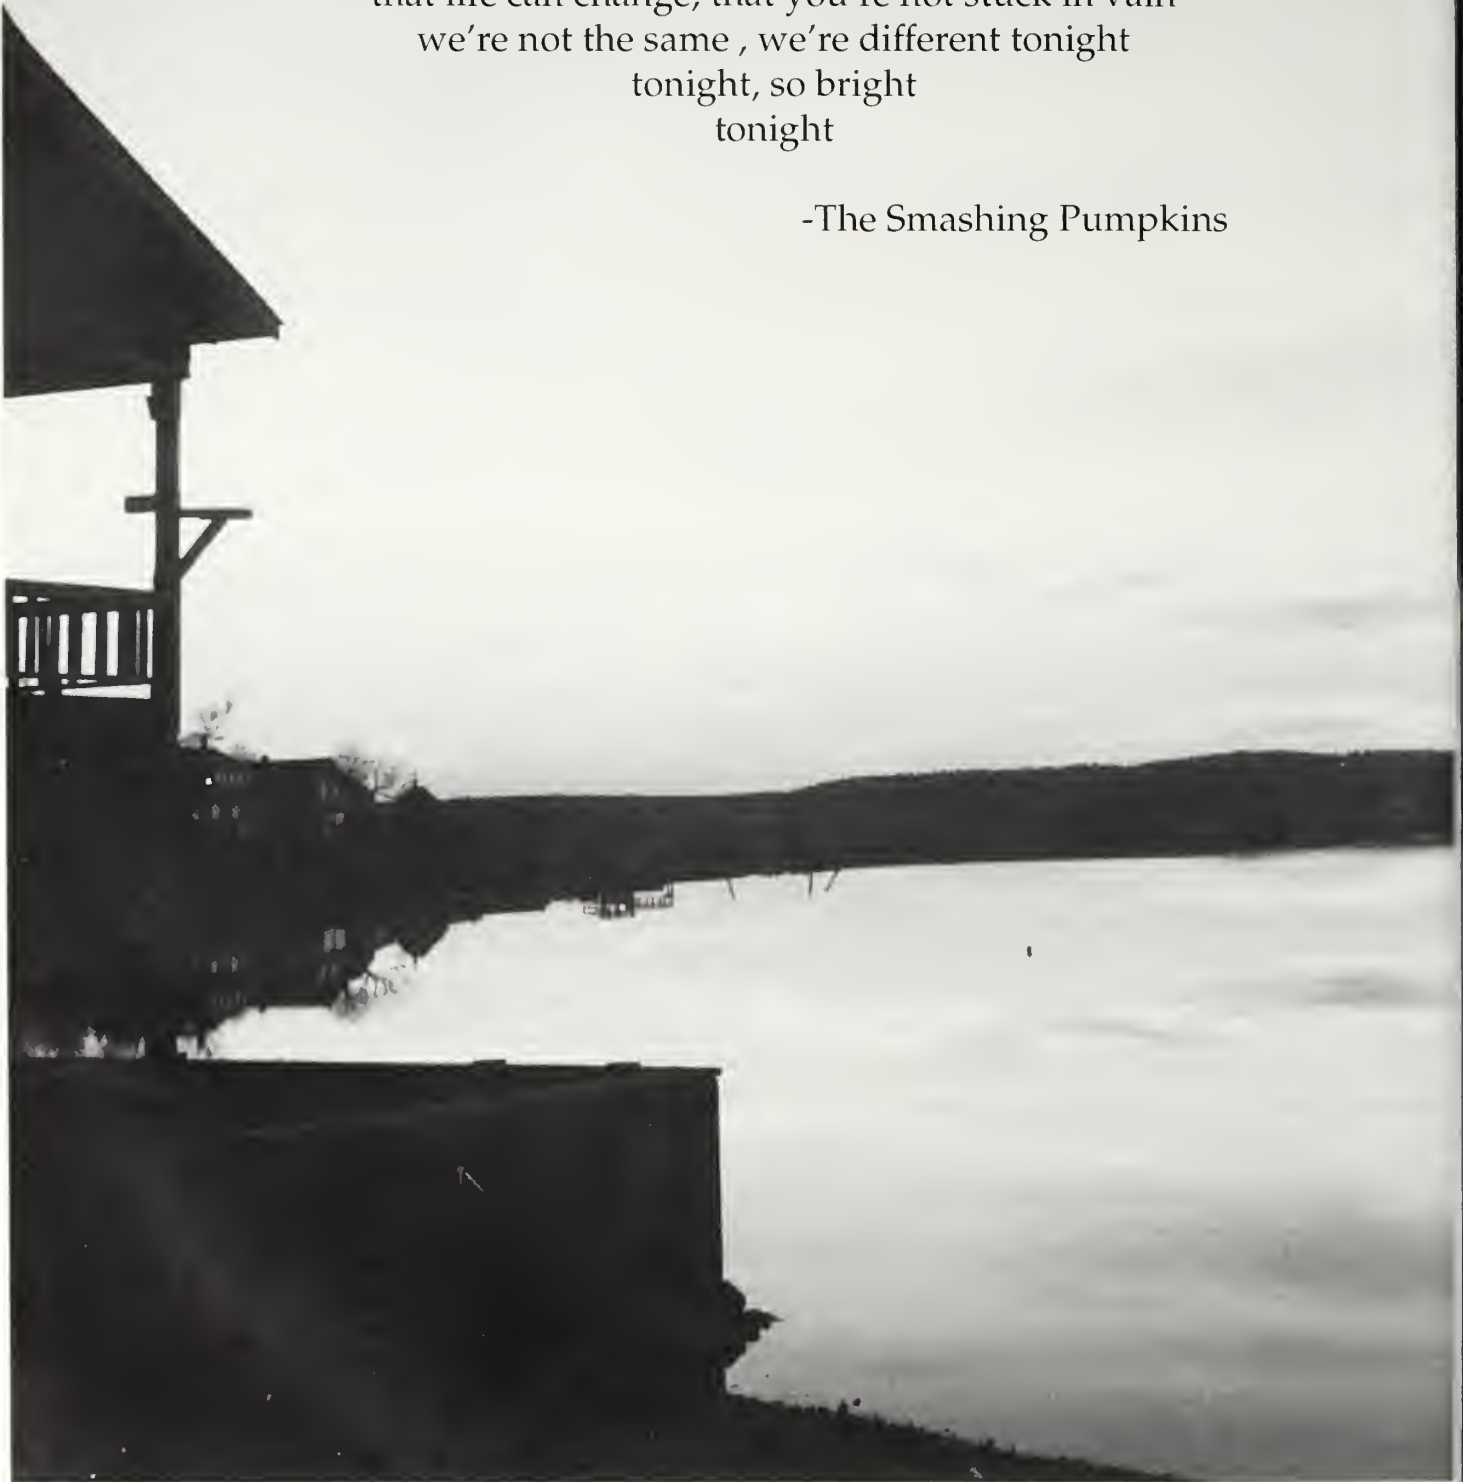

Bethany Lane was tangled in a web of lies.
Caleb Lawson was fully absorbed in Trainspotting and didn't want to leave his basement.
A.J. Lemire was buying a new pair of blue jeans.
Kira Lemnah's mom had plans, so she couldn't go.
Matt Loy was out on the ropes course.
Nick Maniskas was taping his newest late-night Cinemax feature.
Katie Marcus was still enjoying her license.
Jen Mazzone was starring as Keri Russell's stunt double.
Katie McCabe was breaking into the B&T.
Lindsay Milne was recovering after a long night at a Jimmy Buffet concert.
Liz O'Neill was debating whether or not to go to the BBC or the St. John's prep reunion, but she decided she HAD to go to the Beverly reunion instead.
James Pastore was a tap-dancing "stah" in a new version of Guys & Dolls premiering on Broadway.
Laura Pavles was picking up guys at a comic book convention.
Mike Peart was being chased by hungry kids and trying to keep his colorful marshmallow cereal away from them.
Matt Peyla was still online.
Evan Pinstein wouldn't go if Mia wasn't going.
Carolyn Poulos was busy figuring out what kind of fruit grape jelly is made of.
Amber Price was sick.
Kim Rauch went to the Salem reunion instead.
Chris Reed was skateboarding downtown.
Lisa Rezza was hanging out with guys she picked up on Rte. 128.
Zach Richardson was hanging with his Rockport girls.
Nicole Rodier was too busy making sure everyone else got there on time.
J.J. Round was at home in Jersey watching the Yankees lose.
Meg Routzong didn't come because Mia stole her date.
Carolyn Ryan was at Tuck's Point with Kyle.
Natalie Ryan was out on a date with her favorite armadillo.
Sye Na Schulz found it too offensive.
Cody Smith was stuck in his cabin, cut off from civilization.
Katie Smith got stuck in a box and couldn't get out.
Billy Spencer was dying his hair blue.
Jon Stanton wasn't invited because no one knew he was in the class of 2002.
Jared Strong was cashing in his tail.
Nic Tanner was getting his afro trimmed.
Erin Theriault was in the hospital after some boy finally hit her back.
Hadley Tieger was still catching up on all the sleep she missed in high school.
Rory Tiernan got deported back to England because he couldn't speak American.
Luke Torjeson was living in a van down by the river.
Parker Ward's speakers blew out and he wouldn't show up without bass.
Caitlin Wallace refused to believe she graduated from the class of 2002.
Gretchen Willwerth just didn't know.
Jeremy Wintersteen had his own private reunion at home.
Christina Wright's parents still wouldn't let her out of the house.
Jay Young-Taylor couldn't decide which piece of Umbro clothing to wear.
Nick Zbyszynski couldn't go because 3 Spanish kids had stolen his ticket.

time is never time at all you can never ever leave without leaving a piece of youth and our lives are forever changed we will never be the same the more you change the less you feel believe, believe in me, believe that life can change, that you're not stuck in vain we're not the same , we're different tonight tonight, so bright tonight

Thank you Re, Morrie, Sarah, Cora, Mom, Dad, and my darling dancing queen. Although I do not want to cut up pictures of some of you, you are still in my heart. You will be there whether I am far or near. Favorite things: George, Radio Head, hot cider, sweaters, flip flops, beachie, sumo, cards, photography, sleep, my bed, cereal, reading, walking, night sky, Led Zepplin, mac and cheese, hot summer nights, iced mochachino, Sublime, and jeans. These years are all about finding ourselves, good luck to everyone. Just keep your heads high, then everything will be good. Playing in the Commons, NH, Seattle, Boston, Campo; although I haven't made it to Germany yet- I'll get there Cora. Going for coffee. Have a camel! 4:30? Make a pot? Let's go to Vermont and make some tea.

Ethan Einhorn

EGM's official "jack-of-all-trades" free-lancer came in and (once again) played all of the games we didn't want to.

Occasionally he found one that he liked (WDL Thunder Tanks, for instance), but once we found out that he was having a good time with that one, we quickly confiscated the game and replaced it with more drek.

I would like to thank everyone for helping me become what I am today, friends, family, teachers, and especially Mr. Priolo who helped me in so many ways I can't even count. Well, along with the thanks part also comes the funny part, so here is what got me through all four years of highschool and I will always remember: These are a few inside jokes/sayings I have "catalogued" over the last four years (most from my calculator, TI 82 you rule!) "What is the magnitude?" "NO!" "What is the hippopotamus?" "I ain't taking it no mo", "Irrelevant", "Why would you leave the union...when you have public facilities!", "Step 3 is...step 3!", "You should be in advanced!" "I know you are on to me Jeremy...", "Life is all about, Han pan, Data the save monkey, and Poka", "Represent, BABY BABY", "Kick some BUTTE", "All your base, our belong to us...", Congratulations class of 2002, good luck to all of you." Muhahahahahahaha...."

Can't forget, "Archers of Loaf" Booker, Chris, and Evan. I am going to miss the school, the people, teachers and Mr. Murphy. It was music to my ears when he told me that I was the cause of more than half the grey hairs on his head. And the "TUNA MELTZ" The best was torturing Mrs. Hunt. She's happy to see me go. I know that when I graduate I will always think about who is going to park on top of my oil stain in the front parking lot, and are there going to be anymore "No --- Fridays." By me leaving now all the Jiffy Johns and locks in Manchester will be safe and the town of Manchester will have to bur an alarm clock to wake them up because my loud truck won't be driving through at 7:00 every morning. Well, I had a great time at MHS (hence no regional junk) and I will never forget the crazy memories or weekends that have occurred during my years at MHS/ Also A block DECA CERCA 2000 with Rory.

We're moving upwards, outwards, hopefully not downwards, but always forwards. We look to the next role and think of how we are losing each other, ending the friendships and relationships that we have built over the years together. But are we? Our memories will preserve our friendships for all time. We aren't losing each other, we are gaining a new perspective on each other and on life. This stage in our lives has come to a close. Open the curtain on a new stage. Then do it again. And again. Go through each stage of life and preform like Olivier. I know I'll try to. But always remember to smile and laugh. Take joy in the smallest intance. And always remember that "Humor is what keeps us from dying before we are killed."

"At last the three companions turned away, and never again looking back they rode slowly homewards; and they spoke no word to one another until they came back to the Shire, but each had great comfort in his friends on the long gray road.

At last they rode over the downs and took the East Road and then Merry and Pippin rode on to Buckland; and already they were singing again as they went. But Sam turned to Bywater, and so came back up the Hill, as the day was ending once more. And he went on, and there was yellow light, and fire within; and the evening meal was ready, and he was expected. And Rose drew him in, and set him in his chair, and put little Elanor upon his lap.

He drew a deep breath. 'Well, I'm back,' he said."

"Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some stay for awhile and leave footprints on our hearts. And we are never, ever the same." Thank-you Mom, Dad, Zac, and everyone else that helped me get through out the years. I couldn't have done it without your kindness and support. Thank you everyone that took me on trips, participated in sports with me, and were just there through out the years. I'm sorry to those of you that I didn't include I still luv ya. What I will miss...my friends, the loud lunchroom conversations, the instances when I shock all around me with my candidness, (Jessie and Mike's heads) inside joke, Student council, school dances, shepard's pie, Mr. Shaps running away from me, the divided, yet united, Senior class, fighting for a proposal and succeeding.
What I look forward to...college, lite-long relationships, making a fortune, being in Fortune, keeping in touch with high school friends and seeing them every summer, meeting girls with similar interests, getting into the college of my choice, (burning down every orange tree in Florida) inside joke, becoming more of a leader. I want all my friends to know that I love them and I will miss them when I go to college but look forward to seeing them on trips home.

I type this with time better spent doing homework or filling out an application, only able to assume that I will graduate. I like Matt Caleb Mike Andrew Nick Jeremy Ben Alex, the girls are ok for what they're worth, Elly is probably a notch above the girls. I have defied natural selection with my favorite bran muffin Matt, done things unmentionable and unnatural with Caleb, NOT gotten nagasakified with Mike, "beaten up" Andrew, been "beaten up" by Nick, condemned communism with Jeremy, discussed limiting "civil" rights with Ben, and, well, spoken with Alex, under Jesse's supervision of course. I want to thank God for not letting me get killed, my dad for teaching me seventh grade algebra, my mom for explaining it after Dad gave up, and the yankees for consistently owning the Sox. I only have a few thoughts to Jimmy P, If you had some nutz hanging on the wall. E-dubble-Hes got game sucka! Steve aint nothing but a Hooag. AJ, We'll be Bonnie & Clyde forever that's no J-O-K joke. To Rok have a merry one. Cam, what it is. Silva, crw magnum man, illson. Everyone in Manchester, Bev. Word Up. In my conclusion all you with Four cylinders, you can't test the Super Coupe. Peace Out.

Four and a half years I have been here and still people are amazed at my accent. Yes, I am English and proud of it!!

High school has gone so fast I can't believe it; I can still remember 9th grade like it was yesterday. I wish I could do it all over again, but I can't wait to see what the future holds. There are so many things I will miss about this place from sailing to playing golf, and hanging out with my friends. I don't regret a moment.

Matt, Ben, Alex, Caleb, Mike, Nick, Andrew, and all the gang I'll see you all next summer.

Wow! Sitting here, looking at these finished pages, I am overwhelmed with amazement. We made an entire book! Although I can hardly wait until I actually am able to hold the finished book in my hands, I am thankful to have gotten this far.

I would like to thank all of the people who have helped to make this book beautiful. It really represents our class's unique personality.

SO...

Miss Petelle: Thank you so much for devoting so much time to this book. I love the organizational skills that you contributed. Without you, I would fall to pieces. And thank you for nagging Mercer, because without that, we would have no book.

Nicole: Thanks for saving me from several potential mental breakdowns. Without you, I would never have remembered to breathe. And while you're at Smith, don't forget: I'm okay, you're okay.

Katie: I will never be able to thank you enough for accepting your role as some sort of assistant editor. I'm sorry you didn't get the chance to work on enough actual pages, but you certainly contributed a lot to this book.

Tanya, Jessie, and Lisa: Thank you for contributing a lot of the personality that this book has. Your candid pictures and favorites pages show the true uniqueness of our class. It's great that we could get so many seniors to work on this book!

Emily and Ali: You two are so organized and creative that I trust that you will have a wonderful book next year. (Not that anybody is pressuring you to become the editors, but I think you would do a great job.) Thanks for all your hard work!

Ellie: Thank you for your cute and creative pages. I'm sorry I didn't get to see you very often, but you did a great job.

Hunter, Marni, Kara, Anne, and Katie: It was great to see sophomores on this yearbook staff. That was something I never expected. Good luck in the years to come. I hope your class has a great book!

Thanks so much, you guys!
Good luck
in the years
to come!

The Future is so bright...

Carolyn,

From the day you were born you helped us to grow and learn . Soon it will be time for you to move on and leave us on our own. You have done a "super" job.

Congragulations and good luck!

With our love and thanks,
Mom, Dad and Doug

Thank you for being a wonderful daughter, for giving us so many reasons to smile, thanks for the memories we'll keep with us always and for making us so proud. You have brought us more pride, joy and happiness than you could ever know. Congratulations!

We love you,

Mom, John, Alexandra, Kobe and Scuttles

To my daughter Jessica,

You once wrote me a letter about a guardian angel
I believe my real one is you. (Bailey would agree) Watching you grow, sharing your life and having you as my daughter has brought me more joy, pride, love and happiness than you could ever know. Dare all your dreams- always believe in yourself-treasure the tiny miracles and reach for the stars. You are my amazing daughter.

P.S. I love you too!

My Wish For You

There's so much we must learn in life
 As we live from day to day
 Here is what I wish for you
 As you travel on life's way
 I wish for you a gentle heart
 To give, to love, to care
 Confidence to try new things
 Good friends with which to share
 Hope for each tomorrow
 Pride in all you do
 Wisdom and understanding
 Peace and laughter, too
 A long and lasting happiness
 A patient, trusting love
 Forgiveness of the ones who err
 True faith in God above
 To like yourself in every way
 To be grateful for all things
 ... I wish for you the very best
 Of all life's finest things

Amber Lynne

Way to go Boo! We are all so proud of for being such an awesome kid. We have watched you with joy grow from an independent toddler to an independent, hardworking, loving and caring young woman. Your spirit has brought us many smiles (and laughs too!) and we truly admire your determination to continue to make good choices. Also, to share your love and talents by being helpful to others. We know you have what it takes to go out there in the world and to KEEP ON SHINING!!!

We love you, Mom and Mike, Lexi and Matt, Ashley, David, Mimi, Uncle Mike and Auntie Laura. Britt and Bill, Grandma Barb, Brianna and Lydia.

Amber-

I am so privileged to have you as my little sister. I know that we don't always get along- but hey! We are sisters, right? I am so proud of you. You have shown so much growth in the last four years. I can't wait until you are a world-famous doctor and own your big house. That way I can live with you and mooch off of you forever. Hey... would that work? Maybe you could even continue to clean up after me. No, really... I love you so much and thank God that I have a sister as wonderful as you. You truly are a beautiful young lady (on the inside as well as the out!). Love always, your big sister. Lexi

Alex,

Another milestone! We're sure that all your future ones will be as happy and as successful as this one.

Remember what that famous man once said, "Failing to succeed is not nearly as important as failing to try to succeed." In other words, "Go For It."

All the very, very best in every aspect of your future, whether it be social, academic, or family.

Lots of love and best wishes from Mum, Dad, Kevin, Marlou, Annabelle, Carolann, Michael, Gaynor, Lynee, Kerry, Olive, Tom and Chubby.

SONG OF THE OPEN ROAD

Afoot and light-hearted, I take to the open road,
Healthy, free, the world before me,
The long brown path before me, leading wherever I choose.

Henceforth I ask not good-fortune—I myself am good-fortune;
Henceforth I whimper no more, postpone no more, need nothing,
Strong and content, I travel the open road.

The earth—that is sufficient;
I do not want the constellations any nearer;
I know they are very well where they are;
I know they suffice for those who belong to them.

Still here I carry my old delicious burdens;
I carry them, men and women—I carry them with me wherever
I go;
I swear it is impossible for me to get rid of them;
I am fill'd with them, and I will fill them in return.

Congratulations Weeble!
I love you, Mom.

Yes I Can!

If you think you are beaten, you are,
If you think you dare not, you don't.
If you'd like to win, but think you can't,
It's almost certain you won't.

If you think you'll lose, you're lost,
For out in the world we find,
Success begins with a fellow's will,
It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you are outclassed, you are,
You've got to think high to rise.
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.

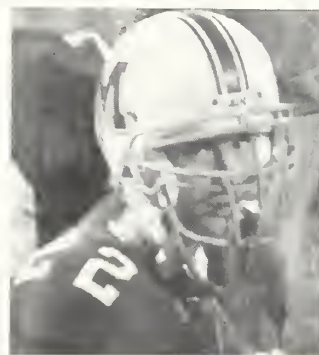

Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man,
But sooner or later, the person who wins,
Is the one who thinks he can!
